

Introducing www.mysmarthealthcare.com, Interactive Training Initiatives for Healthcare

Saratoga Springs, NY- March 7, 2008 - mySmartSimulations®, Inc., a full service interactive training solution company, is pleased to announce plans to launch www.mysmarthealthcare.com in May 2008. The site includes a learning center focused on training and compliance for medical sales professionals, nurses, OR staff and other providers in healthcare. Printable certification is offered upon successful completion of each course. Once an individual enrolls in a course they are granted access for one year. During this period, the learner may return to the course to review the material at any time, or to print additional copies of their certificate.

Cine-Med, Inc. an accredited research institution reviews all course content and approves our copy. Cine-Med, Inc. is a nationally accredited provider of Continuing Medical Education and is identified in the course summary, as well as reflected on the certificate of completion.

mySmartSim offers exceptional online training to supply a broader educational community for individuals to master their profession. “Making our learning center accessible to working professionals is one of our greatest priorities. There are thousands of companies that have a strong need for compliance training. mySmartSimulation’s global distribution offers professionals not only affordable training, but also the chance to gain experience with a tool used by employers everywhere,” said Doug Robertson, Vice President of Sales and Marketing, mySmartSimulations, Inc.

About mySmartSimulations®, Inc.

mySmartSim has developed an application, Worldwide Interactive Learning Designer (WILD), for creating custom interactive simulation and chapter-base courses. This authoring tool allows us to develop truly interactive learning experiences resulting in reduced liability and training costs, as well as increased retention and productivity. mySmartSim currently uses WILD to design high quality, intuitive dynamic courses and presentations for some of the largest companies in the world. WILD has allowed mySmartSim to reduce the overall cost and development time of producing highly interactive custom training. mySmartSim is now offering this application to developers and customers worldwide to do the same.
